BENEFITS OF STUDYING IN CANADA

1, LOWER TUITION COSTS

Canada is often the preferred choice for students who may also have the option of studying in countries such as the United States or United Kingdom because of the lower tuition costs. Compared to other countries, Canadian international tuition fees, accommodation and other living expenses remain competitive

2, CANADA WANTS STUDENTS

Canada wants students because Canada is all about nation-building. Young, intelligent newcomers who have proven they have the credentials and means to assimilate are a big part of that. In short, Canada wants students to come here, study, contribute socially and economically, and stay permanently.”

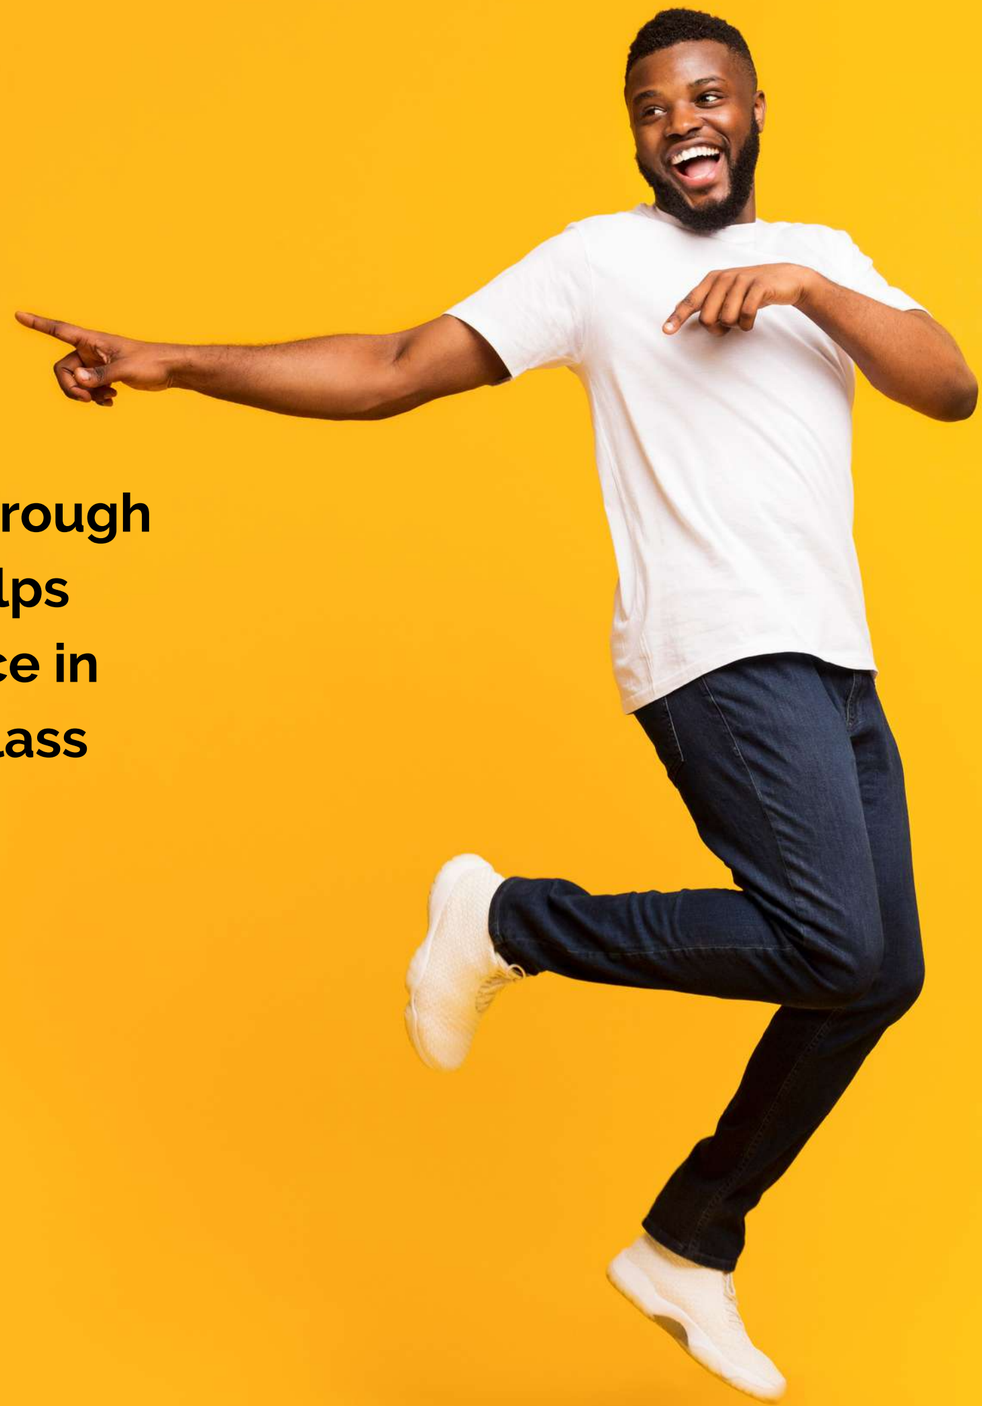

3, YOU CAN WORK AND STUDY IN CANADA

International students can work 20 hours/week during school semesters and up to 40 hours/week on during school breaks. What's more, if you work in the campus area, you will not need a work permit. Such a permit is required for fulltime employment outside campuses.

4, A PATHWAY TO CANADIAN PERMANENT RESIDENCE

Skilled Canadian work experience gained through the Post-Graduate Work Permit Program helps graduates to qualify for permanent residence in Canada through the Canadian Experience Class (CEC). etc

Why study in the UK?

1, POST-STUDY WORK OPPORTUNITIES

From 1 July 2021, international students can apply to stay in the UK for two years (or three years for PhD students) after finishing their studies, through the new Graduate Route.

2, A HIGHER STANDARD OF EDUCATION

With world-recognised universities and quality that's government-guaranteed, the UK offers academic excellence wherever and whatever you choose to study.

3, SUCCEED IN YOUR CAREER

With so many world-class degrees on offer in the UK, it's easy to see why we're the best possible place for you to study. But did you know we're also the best place to prepare for your chosen career? Find out why.

4, HIGH RATE OF EMPLOYABILITY

Academic standards are of high prestige and the education will provide you with a solid foundation to boost your potential for having a higher salary and finding exactly what job you want.

Employers want high quality graduates who have specific skill sets, including effective, critical, and creative thinking skills. UK education is recognised by employers, universities and governments worldwide.

5, INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS ARE WELCOMED

The UK has a long history of welcoming international students to study at its universities, and those who decide to study in the UK will be rubbing shoulders with some of the brightest minds from all corners of the globe.

FACTS & QUESTIONS

- WHAT IS THE PROCEDURE FOR STUDY IN CANADA?

The first step is to get admission to a Canadian Designated Learning Institution (DLI) recognized by the government of Canada. Once an individual receives a letter of acceptance from a DLI, he or she may be able to apply for a study permit. Applications may be made online or by mail.

- HOW MUCH DOES IT COST TO STUDY IN CANADA?

Tuition fees vary based on institution and chosen course.

- WHAT ARE THE PROCESSING TIMES FOR A STUDY PERMIT?

Processing times for study permits vary by visa office. For a complete list of processing times based on visa office.

- IS A STUDY PERMIT REQUIRED FOR SHORT COURSES?

An applicant is not required to obtain a study permit for a program, which is less than six months in duration. However, if a course is longer than six months, the prospective student will need to apply for a study permit.

IS IELTS REQUIRED IN ORDER TO GAIN ADMISSION?

Please note that some Canadian Universities and colleges may require IELTS or proof of language proficiency in order to gain admission depending on course of study.

IS A MEDICAL EXAM REQUIRED FOR A STUDY PERMIT?

An applicant may be required to undergo a medical examination based on the discretion of the visa officer.

ARE POLICE CERTIFICATES REQUIRED FOR A STUDY PERMIT APPLICATION?

An applicant may need a criminal record check if he or she intends to come to Canada as a student. Police certificates are required to determine if applicants have a criminal record. They also help visa officers make sure applicants are not a security risk to Canada

IS IT POSSIBLE TO WORK DURING STUDIES?

An international student may be eligible to work while studying in Canada. A student must have a valid study permit and be enrolled full-time at a Designated Learning Institution (DLI). Study permit holders may be allowed to work for up to 20 hours per week during regular academic sessions and full time during scheduled breaks.

DO I NEED TO SHOW PROOF OF FUNDS WHEN APPLYING FOR A STUDY PERMIT?

Canada study permit applicants need to prove they have sufficient funds to cover tuition fees, and financial capacity to support living expenses for the first year of study.

This table shows minimum funds required to support yourself as a student and family members who come with you to Canada:

Number of people	All provinces except Quebec
Single student	Tuition plus $10,000 for a 12-month period (or $833 per month)
For one accompanying family member add:	$4,000 for a 12-month period (or $333 per month)
For each additional family member, add:	$3,000 for a 12-month period per dependent child of any age (or $255 per month)

IS IT POSSIBLE TO STAY IN CANADA AFTER GRADUATION?

Canadian immigration policy offers international students many ways to stay and settle in the country after graduation. A popular option available to international students after graduation is the possibility for an open work permit under the Post-Graduation Work Permit Program (PGWPP). Under the PGWPP, an individual who has studied full-time at a participating Designated Learning Institution (DLI) may be eligible to apply for a PGWP. Gaining work experience in Canada after graduation may help you qualify for permanent residence in Canada through a variety of immigration available immigration programs.

IS IT POSSIBLE TO ACCOMPANY A SPOUSE WHO IS AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT?

A spouse or common-law partner of a valid study permit holder, who is enrolled full-time at a qualified postsecondary institution, may be eligible to apply for an open work permit. The open work permit for a spouse or common-law partner may be valid for the same period of time as the study permit, and as long as the study permit remains valid. In the study permit application, the applicant should indicate that the spouse will accompany him or her to Canada. If a spouse later decides to study in Canada, he or she should submit his or her own study permit application. For an accompanying spouse to be considered eligible for an open work permit, the study permit holder must be enrolled full-time at a degree-granting post-secondary institution

CAN DEPENDENT CHILDREN ACCOMPANY AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT TO CANADA?

An applicant's dependent children may accompany him or her to Canada. However, an application for a Temporary Resident Visa (TRV) or Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) may be required for the accompanying dependent.

DOES A DEPENDANT CHILD WHO WILL BE STUDYING IN CANADA NEED A SEPARATE STUDY PERMIT APPLICATION?

If an individual is already in Canada on a study or work permit, his or her accompanying minor child may be eligible to study without a study permit. A study permit applicant must indicate that his or her minor children will also study in Canada. A letter of acceptance from a Canadian Designated Learning Institution (DLI) will not be required for accompanying children. Once the is no longer under the age of majority, he or she must apply for a study permit to continue studies in Canada. The age of majority is different in each province and territory, although it is usually 18 or 19 years of age. Anyone under the age of majority is considered a minor

WHAT IMMIGRATION PROGRAMS ARE AVAILABLE FOR INTERNATIONAL STUDENTS INTERESTED IN PERMANENTLY SETTLING IN CANADA?

Education in Canada may offer international students a route to Canadian permanent residence. There are a range of federal and provincial programs available for international students to apply for immigration, and in some cases, this can be done without a job offer. Canadian education and work experience award those who are eligible additional points in the federal Express Entry Comprehensive Ranking System.
